

CONTENTS

List of Videos	x
Acknowledgments	xiv
Introduction	xvi
How to Use This Book	xx

LESSONS FOR GENERATING IDEAS—AND INTERPRETING AUTHOR’S PURPOSE

1

PART 1

What You Will Find in This Section	1
When to Use These Lessons	1
Preparing to Use the Lessons	1

LESSON 1

Writing: An Author’s Expertise Matters	3
Reading: Considering the Source	6

LESSON 2

Writing: Write About What You Take for Granted	9
Reading: Learning Unexpected Things From Familiar Topics	11

LESSON 3

Writing: The Relationship Between an Author’s Passions and Stance	13
Reading: Identifying an Author’s Stance	15

LESSON 4

Writing: Narrowing Down a Broad Topic	18
Reading: Understanding Topics and Subtopics	20

LESSON 5

Writing: The Role of Structure in Informational Texts	22
Reading: Considering How Choices in Structure Affect Meaning	27

LESSON 6

Writing: Using Structure to Convey the Writer's Intent	30
Reading: Inferring the Author's Intent by Noticing Structure	32

FOR DIGITAL CLASSROOMS

Writing: Choosing the Best Platform for Your Information and Audience	35
Reading: Considering Why Authors Might Choose Analogue or Digital Mediums	38

PART 2*LESSONS FOR DRAFTING—AND UNDERSTANDING AUTHOR'S CRAFT 43

What You Will Find in This Section	43
When to Use These Lessons	43
Preparing to Use the Lessons	44

LESSON 7

Writing: Drafting What You're Most Ready to Write	46
Reading: Spotting What's Most Important to an Author	48

LESSON 8

Writing: Structure Within Sections: Stacking Information	50
Reading: Identifying the Way Information Is Stacked	54

LESSON 9

Writing: Drafting With Placeholders for Later Facts	57
Reading: Using Jots to Note Facts Quickly	59

LESSON 10

Writing: Taking a Draft Break to Research	61
Reading: Noticing the Various Ways Authors Use Quotation Marks	63

LESSON 11

Writing: Drafting With an Audience in Mind	65
Reading: Noticing the Different Genres of Various Publications on the Same Topic	68

LESSON 12

Writing: Drafting in a Mood or Tone That Matches the Content	71
Reading: Noticing When the Tone Doesn't Match the Topic	74

LESSON 13

Writing: Drafting to Someone Else's Specifications	76
Reading: Noticing a Publisher's Approach	78

FOR DIGITAL CLASSROOMS

Writing: Fact-Checking Digital Information for Accuracy	81
Reading: Identifying False Information	84

LESSONS FOR REVISING FOR POWER, CRAFT, ANALYSIS, AND CRITIQUE*87*PART 3

What You Will Find in This Section	87
When to Use These Lessons	87
Preparing to Use the Lessons	88

LESSON 14

Writing: Deciding What's Most Important to Revise	89
Reading: Identifying and Questioning the Author's Values	91

LESSON 15

Writing: Reordering Information With Intention	94
Reading: Noticing the Effect of Information's Placement	98

LESSON 16

Writing: Exploring How Writers Weight Information to Signal Import	101
Reading: Looking at Texts to See How Volume Can Signify Importance	105

LESSON 17

Writing: The Power of Story	107
Reading: Switching Strategies When Authors Use Story in Expository Text	110

LESSON 18

Writing: Connections and Disconnections Across Paragraphs and Pages 113

Reading: Tracing Connections and Disconnections in Transitions 116

LESSON 19

Writing: Vocabulary's Starring Role in Informational Texts 119

Reading: Expecting and Responding to the Subject's Vocabulary 122

LESSON 20

Writing: The Slipperiness of Facts 125

Reading: Reading With Eyes Wide Open for Bias 128

FOR DIGITAL CLASSROOMS

Writing: Adding Dimensions to Writing Through Multimodal Features 132

Reading: Multimodal Readers Prioritize Synthesis 137

PART 4*LESSONS TO PREPARE FOR PUBLICATION AND THE SCHOLARLY STUDY OF TEXTS 143

What You Will Find in This Section 143

When to Use These Lessons 143

Preparing to Use These Lessons 143

LESSON 21

Writing: First and Last Words: Intros and Conclusions That Attract and Linger 145

Reading: Studying an Author's First and Last Words 150

LESSON 22

Writing: Choosing When to Quote, Describe, or Summarize 152

Reading: Identifying Sources and Considering Their Reliability 154

LESSON 23

Writing: Creating Text Features to Enhance and Add Information 158

Reading: Integrating Text Features Within and Across Texts 162

LESSON 24

Writing: Creating Strong Titles and Subtitles	164
Reading: Titles and Subtitles That Convey Meaning	167

LESSON 25

Writing: The Many Purposes of Paragraphs	169
Reading: Seeing Paragraphs as an Author's Organizational Tool	171

LESSON 26

Writing: Punctuating With Intention	174
Reading: Looking Across Texts With an Eye to Punctuation	177

LESSON 27

Writing: Using Meaning to Make Smart Spelling Decisions	179
Reading: The Role of Etymology for Readers	182

LESSON 28

Writing: Making Publishing Decisions Based on the Intended Audience	184
Reading: Judging the Effectiveness of an Author's Decisions	186

FOR DIGITAL CLASSROOMS

Writing: Opening and Maintaining a Conversation With Audiences	188
Reading: Responding Digitally to the Texts to Deepen Understanding	191
Publisher's Acknowledgments	194
Resources	195
References	200
Index	202

Visit the companion website at resources.corwin.com/writersreadbetter for videos and downloadable resources.